fee example

As a guide to using the Ratio menu, we have provided some examples of how the services can be tailored to meet your needs.

Example 1

Gary had just inherited a property in Manningham and came to Ratio with a proposal to construct 3 dwellings. Gary, being inexperienced, did not submit a planning report with his application and Council requested that he provide a ResCode assessment as well as an assessment of Council's local policies. So Gary came to Ratio for a ResCode assessment for 3 dwellings ($900) in Doncaster, which required a site inspection ($250) and a covering letter (brief assessment) ($1,000). The submission was not as detailed as a full Ratio Planning Submission, but resulted in the request for further information being satisfied for a cost of $2,150.

Example 2

David was seeking to purchase a $5.0 million property in Altona, but was uncertain of the development potential and planning restrictions associated with the particular site. So David came to Ratio Consultants for specific advice on the zoning, overlay and planning controls. As David sought specific advice, a site inspection ($600) was required and a detailed Property Report ($1,000). David was able to make a well informed decision on purchasing the property for a nominal cost of $1,600.

Example 3

Nicole had recently obtained a planning permit for a building containing twenty apartments in St Kilda. The Council imposed a number of conditions, which included a car park management plan ($750) and waste management plan ($750). Having used Ratio for a detailed planning submission, Nicole was aware that Ratio also offered services relating to the preparation of the management plans and that for a total cost of $1,500, Nicole was able to satisfy her permit requirements.
